

Salvation Colors Afghan/Lapghan

A Knit and Crochet Bible Study

By TerryAnn Porter

The COLORS OF SALVATION afghan/lapghan

This lesson on various colors representing God's Plan of Salvation is a fun way to learn Scripture and to tell the Salvation story.

Each color is a reminder of God's love and desire to share eternity with us. Salvation is a FREE GIFT, but must be accepted.

Each panel offers a chance to learn a new stitch pattern. I have offered up stitch patterns for a Knit version and for a Crochet version. Both are finished off with crochet edging.

Mix and match the patterns to your liking. Make the panels long enough for an afghan or smaller for a lapghan or child size cover up. (others have suggested making a tote bag or pillow)

I hope you enjoy the lessons and the pattern. For more ideas, check out <http://www.knittingbiblestudyonline.com/> . If you haven't done so, sign up for monthly newsletter with even more information at <http://www.KnittingBibleStudy.com> .

Knitting Needles size 9 for Knit version

Crochet Hook "G" or "H" for both versions

Cable hook for Knit version

Yarn needle for both version

1 Skein each color in Red Heart or I Love This Yarn

- Black
- Orange
- Red
- Gold
- Purple
- Blue
- White
- Green

Each panel represents a part of the Salvation story.

Orange represents the fire of hell. We are condemned to life in hell. Romans 6:23 says “For the wages of sin is death”. Not the physical death, but the spiritual second death, life eternally separated from God. It is further described in Revelation 21:8 “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is a second death”.

Are you anywhere on that list? All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. Romans 3:23.

White represents the purity of our hearts being washed whiter than snow. We are condemned to death, but because of the blood of Jesus and the sacrifice made, we are made pure. Romans 10:13 says “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” That whosoever means YOU. It means me, it means anybody!! All you have to do is call upon Him and trust Him. That cleansing is made possible because “..the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses us from all sin” according to 1 John 1:7. “In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death” Proverbs 12:28.

When God looks at those who call on Him, he doesn't see the sin, He sees the purity.

Gold is used to represent heaven as described in Revelation 21:18 “..and the city was pure gold”. Jesus is preparing a home for you and me. He promises to take us to that home in John 14:2,3 “In my Father's house are many mansions..I am going to prepare a place for you...I will come back and take you to be with me.” Your heavenly home is under construction right now.

Blue is the color of the waters of baptism. As a symbol of your commitment to the Lord God you are asked to follow Jesus in baptism. Baptism does not save a person any more than putting on a ring makes your married. You must follow through in the action of commitment. “And he said unto them,” in Mark 16: 15,16 “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believes and is baptized shall be saved”. This is the first command given to a believer. Even Jesus was baptized in Luke 3:21.

Green represents growing in Christ. When you first accept Jesus as Lord and Savior, you are like a baby, needing milk and nourishment. But as you grow you learn more of Him and walk in His ways. You grow away from milk and on to meat. You grow in strength. Hebrews 6:1 says “let us leave the elementary teachings about Christ and go on to maturity”. Are you growing in Christ?

Purple is the color of royalty. Revelation 11:16 describes Jesus' return saying “on his robe and on his thigh he has this name written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS”. Jesus said in Matthew 28:18-20 “All power is given to me in heaven and in earth. Go and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost and teach them to obey all I have commanded.” With authority we are given our instruction.

But sin separates us from God. That is why the Black which represents sin is used as a divider between each set of panels. Remember Romans 3:23 “for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God” and Romans 6:23 “the wages of sin is death.”

That sin has broken the relationship God desires with us.

And that sin can be forgiven. It has been forgiven. Thanks to the Red blood of Jesus. The entire afghan/lapghan is edged in red as a reminder of the price Jesus paid to save you and to save me. That blood was the ransom given for an eternal life with God. Romans 5:8 says “But God demonstrated his love toward us in this, while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” God sent His Son to die so you and I could be with Him in heaven. “For God so loved the world He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him will not perish, but have everlasting life” John 3:16. The key word is “whoever”. Anybody. You. Me. “For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God.” 1Pet 3:18

Because of the blood shed as a sacrifice, we can live eternally, in heaven with the KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

As you work on this project I pray you will think of the meaning of each color, of the love our Lord has for you and the home being prepared for you. Think about each color and what it represents.

Perhaps you can use the blanket to tell the story of salvation to someone else.

Wrap yourself in the blanket and remember the sacrifice made for you, the ransom price that was paid.

PROJECT NOTES:

The pattern for the Knit version is represented with (K) in the title.

The pattern for the Crochet version is represented with (C) in the title

Idea: make some panels in knit and some in crochet.

On the Knit version, the term “tbl” means “through back loop”. This helps reduce curling.

Finishing:

The same procedure will be used to complete the project whether knit or crochet.

Because sin separates us from God, I have chosen black to separate each panel.

With black yarn, the size G crochet hook and the right side of the panel facing you, attach yarn to the far right corner with a slip stitch. Sc in same stitch. Sc across entire length of panel. (if desired, at end of panel, ch1, turn and sc in each sc across for a 2nd row). Fasten off. Do the same for the other side of the panel. Try to make the same number of sc on each panel.

Place the colors side by side in the order you prefer. I chose Orange, White, Blue, Green, Gold, Purple, but the order is entirely up to you. Think of how you will tell the story of Salvation when deciding on the placement. Using black yarn, stitch panels together.

We are saved by the blood of Jesus. His blood has cleansed us, covered up all our sins. So the entire blanket is edged completely in red.

Once all the panels are attached, weave in ends. Now with right side of blanket facing you, attach Red at any corner on the outside.

Row 1: Ch 1, sc around the entire piece, placing 3sc in each corner, join by slip st into beginning ch.

Row 2: ch1, turn sc in each sc, placing 3sc in each corner, join by slip st into beginning ch.

Row 3: ch3 (counts as 1 dc), turn, dc in next st,* skip next 2 st dc in next 2. Dc in first skipped st, going behind the 2dc you just made, repeat in 2nd skipped st. Repeat from * around. NOTE: at corner do not make the cross over. Dc each 2 or 3 st before and after each corner, making sure to make 3dc in each corner stitch, join by slip st into beginning ch.

Row 4: ch1, turn, sc in each sc, placing 3 sc in each corner, join by slip st into beginning ch.

Row 5: ch1, turn, sc in each sc, placing 3 sc in each corner, join by slip st into beginning ch.

Fasten off. Weave in all ends.
